

NATIONAL BALLOT

November 2, 2004

Policy Referendum Questions

1. Should the United States avoid war against the people of other nations by obtaining Congressional Arrest Warrants for personal service on foreign authorities who harm their own citizens and threaten ours? Yes No
2. Should the United States withdraw all military personnel from Iraq as quickly as possible and avoid leaving behind any permanent military installations? Yes No
3. Does the government of Iran pose a substantial risk of harm to the people of the United States? Yes No
4. Does the government of North Korea pose a substantial risk of harm to the people of the United States? Yes No
5. Should the United States replace its income tax with a comprehensive tax on all movement of money and all financial transactions occurring within our economy? Yes No
6. Should the United States preserve the existing Social Security system and ensure its solvency? Yes No
7. Should the United States establish a supplemental personal retirement plan based on individual contributions to a national Bond Fund to invest in the legal obligations of local and state governments? Yes No
8. Should the United States establish a National Education Corps to fund and extend free public education through two years of academic or vocational college training, provide four years of free college education to young adults who provide one year of valuable public service at age 18, and six years of free college education to those who provide two years of valuable public service? Yes No
10. Should the United States immediately forgive all outstanding federal student loans? Yes No
11. Should the United States establish a National Health Corps to provide universal health care to all of its citizens? Yes No
12. Should the United States establish a National Energy Corps to secure space solar energy and to provide free power along all national highways? Yes No

Nominations for President and Vice President

Republican Party
President - George W. Bush Yes
Vice President - Richard Cheney Yes

Democratic Party
President - John Kerry Yes
Vice President - John Edwards Yes

Independent Party
President - Ralph Nader Yes
Vice President - Peter Camejo Yes

Libertarian Party
President - Michael Badnarik Yes
Vice President - Richard Campagna Yes

Write-In Candidates

President
_____ Yes
(PLEASE PRINT NAME CAREFULLY)

Vice President
_____ Yes
(PLEASE PRINT NAME CAREFULLY)

None of the Above

* * * *

ATTENTION!

Place an X in all selected boxes.

Request another ballot if you make a mistake.